CONGRATULATIONS TO KNIJAH KNOWLES

We are delighted to announce that our Knijah Knowles has been promoted to Senior Associate.

Knijah joined the Firm in 2018 and practices primarily in the firm's Banking & Finance, Trusts & Private Client and Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice groups.

Senior Partner, John F. Wilson QC is quoted as follows: “McKinney Bancroft & Hughes is passionate about nurturing the legal talent of tomorrow and this promotion recognises the outstanding level of skill, expertise and service to clients of our newest Senior Associate. From inception with the Firm just three years ago, Knijah has demonstrated that she is a dedicated lawyer. Knijah is highly regarded within the Firm. She loves the law and I am delighted to see her commitment and dedication recognised in this way.”

Knijah added: “I am very honoured to become a Senior Associate at McKinney Bancroft & Hughes and appreciate the opportunities I have been given to learn from the best, grow my practice and further hone my advocacy skills. I look forward to my future with the Firm!”

ABOUT KNIJAH

On completion of her legal studies in 2012 Knijah worked as a Judicial Clerk to the President and Justices of the Court of Appeal of The Bahamas. She was also employed and acted as Legal Officer to the President of the Caribbean Court of Justice.

She has a keen interest in corporate and commercial law, arbitration and public interest litigation, particularly matters that raise questions exploring the intersection between gender rights and the law. She has published on both topics in the UWI Cave Hill and West Indian Law Journals respectively.

Knijah is a member of the Rotary Club of Nassau Sunrise, the UWI Rights Advocacy Project, the Bahamas Crisis Centre and a Tutor with Project Read Bahamas.
