Firm Highlights

Here's an exclusive look into what's been happening around the firm.

MB&H Attends Lex Mundi Conference

Senior Partner John F. Wilson KC recently represented McKinney, Bancroft & Hughes at the 2025 Lex Mundi Managing Partners Conference in Barcelona, Spain.

The conference brought together leaders from top firms around the world to explore the future of the legal profession, including how to navigate AI, evolving client and workforce expectations, and ongoing economic and generational shifts.

We're proud to be part of a global network committed to continuous learning, innovation, and excellence in legal service.

McKINNEY, BANCROFT & HUGHES PARTICIPATES IN BAHAMAS BAR ASSOCIATION TRAINING DAYS

Team MB&H was pleased to take part in the Bahamas Bar Association's recent Training Days, a two-day seminar dedicated to continuing legal education and professional development within the legal community.

Associate Peteche Mitchell moderated a timely panel discussion on Navigating Bar Standards, while Consultant Justice G. Diane Stewart (Ret.) offered valuable insights during an impromptu panel on The Voice of the Child and another panel entitled Evidence and Investigative Deficiencies in Criminal and Civil Litigation.

Senior Associate Erin Hill contributed to two engaging sessions. On day one, she moderated a discussion on No Contest Clauses in Trust Deeds. Partner Sean Moree KC was also a featured panelist on day one, offering analysis on the implications of the Hammersmith-Stewart case. On day two, Erin joined a panel that revisited the fundamentals of drafting wills and probating estates.

We congratulate all MB&H participants and thank the Bahamas Bar Association for hosting a valuable and thought-provoking event.
